

Guide to Success In Economics

Mr. Molino

(Please review sign below).

I have reviewed the requirements and understand my responsibilities to make it a successful year in Economics.

Student's Signature _____

Teacher's Signature _____

Please email mmolino@groton.cnyric.org or call 898-5802, ext. 321 with any questions or concerns.

MATERIALS

- Textbook - Cover it!
- Class Folder - provided in class.
- Index Review Cards. (recommended)
- Dark ink pen and #2 pencil daily.
- Flash Drive

CLASS EXPECTATIONS

- Mutual respect at all times.
- Keep folder and term sheets up to date.
- Review material each night.
- Ask questions in class.
- Participate - discussion helps you to focus on learning.
- Seek extra help—make an appointment to stay after school. (Tuesday or Thursday)
- Do your homework. (when assigned)
- Be prepared & on time.
- Watch the world news.
- Make up work when absent.
- Review for the Final Exam throughout the year.
- Keep track of your grades!

ABSENCES

- Make-ups for legal absences to be arranged upon your return. Your make-up time will directly reflect the number of days absent. This is YOUR responsibility!
- Any assignment due the day of your legal absence, due immediately upon your return.
- Illegal absences result in a zero for any work due on the day you missed.

GRADING

- Grades are not given. They are earned.
- X-tra Credit Classroom activities (Instructor's Discretion)
- Projects (1st 6 weeks/3rd 6 weeks) 50%
- Projects (2nd 6 weeks) 33%
- Quizzes and Current Events (1st 6 weeks/3rd 6 weeks) 50%
- Quizzes and Current Events (2nd 6 weeks) 33%
- Midterm Exam (2nd 6 weeks) 33%
- Final Exam (Final Average) 20%